

Misty's Strong Stand

Once a long, long time ago there was a mythical unicorn named Misty. She was a rather timid creature. Misty lived in a magical land called Calicopia filled with interesting creatures of all shapes and sizes. Misty was a beautiful horse-like creature with a shining, pure, white, mane and tail, her coat was glistening pink. She had a horn of lavender and light blue stripes. There was just one thing Misty needed to learn and that was to learn how to stand up for herself.

One day she was walking with her friend, Calli, a lovely Pegasus. They walked beside a trickling brook sharing their thoughts. When Calli was talking about how she had run into a mean ogre and stood up to it, Misty wondered if she could ever do that.

Later that day when they were having Bible study at her house, Misty asked everyone to pray for her; they all nodded their heads. When Bible study was over Misty led everyone in prayer and asked God to help her. When everyone was gone Misty had a prayer of her own and went off to bed.

She had a restless night thinking about Calli's story. By the time dawn arrived she had fallen asleep, but not for long.

Since she did not sleep well she didn't do a lot and tried to relax. Calli visited since she didn't see Misty outside. She told Misty she needs to have confidence in herself.

She thought about what Calli said the rest of the afternoon. After that Misty prayed and retired off to bed.

The next morning she went to Calli's house. Once again she explained her problem. Calli listened intently like she had before. She told her she would help in every way she could. They also had milk and cookies with their discussion.

Misty went on a walk by herself to think about things. Soon she was galloping, for it felt good. Suddenly she tripped over a rut in the grass and stumbled to the ground. She knew she had broken something.

She winced as she gimped to the doctor. By the time she was there her ankle was swollen. The doctor said her ankle was broken. When she had a cast on her ankle she went home to ice it.

The next day Calli brought some flowers and a card. They prayed and had cookies as usual. Calli left early since Misty had to rest.

As soon as she could walk Misty took a stroll in the woods. It was relaxing until she came across an ogre. She panicked thinking about her friend's story. Misty quickly walked past him as he made fun of her limp.

Later she came across another ogre. She knew she had to stand up for herself. She prayed and took a deep breath. She boldly said to the ogre to stop bullying and quoted Mathew 7:12. She also told him about Jesus and John 3:16. Before she knew it the ogre accepted Christ. He told all his friends; they accepted too. Before long all of Calicopia was following Christ. Misty had to move her Bible studies to the park because the group was too big to fit in her house.

Misty learned how to stand up for herself! Her ankle healed! What could be better??!!

The End

